In the absence of a national asylum system, UNHCR conducts registration and mandate refugee status determination (RSD) alongside other key protection activities.

Till September 2024 5,627 new registrations and 19,704 continuous registrations were finalized, and 1,193 individual RSD decisions were adjudicated and notified. With reference to child protection, Best Interest Assessments (BIAs) procedures supported a total of 231 children. A total of 1,148 individuals received integrated protection solutions including regular multi-purpose cash-based interventions. Nine training sessions on international protection of refugees were organized addressing 173 national actors including magistrates, law enforcement officials, members of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Ministry of Justice.
